

I am writing to make sure that the "do not call list" for Indiana is upheld. I work all day and my mother is elderly and handicapped. I do not want her to be disturbed by telemarketers, and do not want to be disturbed in the evening when I am trying to take care of her and our home. Please deny the above action.
Thanks. Kathy Seiter, RN, BS